

Situation Response Protocol

(EVENT,DATE,LOCATION)

I. Objectives

- A. Respond quickly and deal effectively with the occurrence.
- B. Factual release of information during and after the situation.

II. Principals

- A. Race Organizing Committee (ROC)
 - per ICR 603.4 includes Race Jury
- B. Ski Area Operator (SAO)
- C. Alpine Canada Alpin (ACA)
- D. BC Alpine (BCA)
- E. (Sponsor)

III. Locations

- A. Race Arena (includes controlled race, training and warm-up areas)
- B. Ski Area (lifts and terrain outside race arena)
- C. Event Sites (VIP, Media and other special related locations)

IV. Response Team

- A. SAO – (Designated Management)
- B. CLUB – (Race Chair)
- C. ROC (Jury) - FIS Technical Delegate
- D. ACA – (Designate)
- E. Legal Counsel – (Designate)

V. Response Procedure

- as per location.

A. Race Arena

- as per ICR Art. #601.4, the Jury will be responsible for the closed competition area.

- occurrences will be handled by the appropriate persons (Ski Patrol, Team ,etc) Information to Response team only, for official release.

Medical

- TD and Jury Secretary gather information

- Jury and members of Response Team will prepare facts

- TD will be the official spokesperson for Race Arena

....2

B. Ski Area

- response procedure to be provided by the area operator
- response team prepare facts
- release of official information through SAO spokesperson, or his designate

C. Event Sites

- occurrences handled as required
- facts gathered by ACA/ROC Press and Media Relations Team
- response team apprised of the facts
- official information released by spokesperson, or his designate

D. Response Team Meets at Race Office

- facts assembled
- Legal counsel reviews/comments
- decision taken on official communication
 - facts to be released
 - format, (Press release, press conference, spokesperson)

VI. Official Spokesperson

A. Nominated/ Appointed by Response Team Leaders

B. Press Conferences

- Should Press Conferences be held as a result of emergency or catastrophic occurrences, then all four of the team leaders will be in attendance and provide responses to questions concerning their areas of responsibility.
- All releases/conferences to be issued/held at Press Centre